

EXEMPT IS BETTER THAN EXEMPTIONS

NO JOKE!

You Can be
TOTALLY TAX EXEMPT,
(meaning)
Exempt From ALL
Income Taxes,
(both)
State and Federal.

While they won't take your name off their list, the IRS will, nonetheless, identify your income as "tax exempt," and change their records to show you as a "non-taxpayer".

You Will No Longer Be Owing Any Income Taxes.

Sound Too Good To Be True?

You're Probably Going to Enjoy This!

NO KIDDING - YOU REALLY CAN BE TAX EXEMPT

- Regardless of Your SOURCES of Income: Business, Job, Work, Real Estate, Stock Market, Trading, Investments, Lotteries, Gambling...
...whatever (with a couple exceptions I'll talk about on page three).
 - Regardless of the AMOUNT of Money You Make.
 - Regardless of Where You Make or Keep Your Money (onshore, offshore, or both).
 - And, With an Extra Step, Regardless of Amounts You Bring Onshore from Offshore.
- It Will No Longer Matter What Reports Your Bank Is Required to File.
 - Even if you win a lottery (other than Federal), and the IRS agent is looking for his 50+%, you'll simply say, "I'm tax exempt. If you don't believe me, check my social security number in your own files," and you'll walk away with ALL the money, because the IRS files denote you as exempt from taxes on that income.

(This is regardless of amounts of your income or financial windfalls. If you're tax exempt at $5,000, you're tax exempt at $50 Million. Amounts simply don't matter).

ALL OF THIS IS ACCOMPLISHED...

- ...Without Any IRS Confrontation. Zip. Nada. None.
- ...Without Having to Surrender Your Social Security Number;
- ...Without Jeopardizing Money and Benefits You Have Coming from Social Security, either Now, or in the Future.
- ...Without Being Labeled a "Tax Protester" or "Non Filer," and
- ...Without Waving a "Red Flag in Front Of the Bull."

IN ADDITION,

- The IRS Will Not Be Breathing Down Your Neck,
- Nor Will They Even Challenge You or Take You to Court.

WHY?

- Because you were born Exempt and it's one of you're Constitutional Rights.
- The LAW says, to give up that Right, you had to have Volunteered to do so. The LAW also says you can return to your original "tax exempt" status.
- The Process, once completed, Reinstates Your Tax Status to "Non-Taxpayer".

- No more Income Taxes of any kind, federal or state, including no capital gains, 401K or IRA taxes or penalties. (C.f., “unless”, two paragraphs below)
- When you're traveling, you won't have to worry about declarations and reports to Customs or Treasury Agents. None of that need be your concern, when you're tax exempt, because you're not having to avoid the government watching your paper trails for income tax purposes. (Do they track for any other reason?) There are laws, however, that prohibit you from carrying excessive amounts of cash on your person—for example, in Florida, it's $6000—and the penalty, when caught, is immediate confiscation of the cash, which is almost impossible to get back.
- Also, you won't be concerned about money and taxes in the future, regardless of the sources or amounts of your income, unless you reside in one of the Federal Territories, (D.C., the American Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, and North Mariana islands); or unless you receive paychecks directly from the Treasury Department (e.g., Congressmen, Senators, active military personnel); or unless you have income connected with a trade or business within one of the federal districts or territories.
- And guess what? Except for privacy or for money made offshore and brought onshore, which, itself, is coming under attack by the IRS to expose tax dodgers, you won't need trusts, IBC's, charitable foundations, or corporations for handling income tax matters. You'll learn the legal way to bring big (or little) “offshore” money into the country without any tax filing, reporting or paying requirements. You won't be trying to either avoid taxes (legal), or evade them (illegal). You'll be exempt from paying them in the first place. Being Tax EXEMPT means: TAX exempt. Nothing about income taxes need be your concern—no receipts, no expenses, no deductions, no nothing. (Except Freedom!)

If it sounds like I'm "pitching" you, you bet I am! The first night I got on the conference call, about which I'm going to tell you in a moment, I was so excited, I could hardly sleep. I had not filed income tax returns for 23 years and, while I never suggested anyone follow my steps—confronting the IRS on tax issues is no fun and a lot of work—it's only now I've got security in knowing the law's on my side, the same IRS law I thought I had to resist. Now, the puzzle is complete.

This beats everything I've ever come across. And I'm familiar with almost everything that's out there in the patriot, sovereign Citizen, and tax movements. I'm familiar with most of the arguments people use in trying to avoid filing returns or paying taxes; and I know they almost always fail in court. Why? Because they're missing the most important ingredient; and once you've got THAT key ingredient handled, neither the IRS nor the State taxing authorities will even confront you, let alone challenge you in court.

I've previously extolled the virtues of other tax gurus, like Otto Skinner and Thurston Bell. While I still respect them and think their arguments are valid, they're missing this important key; in addition, their techniques require a willingness for IRS confrontation and court challenges, not to mention a never ending study and correspondence “battle” with the IRS. I did the many hours of study and writing in my own battle for six years; so I know. While, I didn't end up in the pokey, I can't say I slept well, either. Now, I no longer have the need to be constantly looking-over-my-shoulder or waiting-for-the-other-shoe-to-drop.

The company, to which I'm introducing you, is ahead of anything else I've ever seen—hands down. To my knowledge, there's no other company doing what they do. They return you to your natural tax exempt, non-taxpayer status in the eyes of the IRS, using only IRS procedures and forms, in strict compliance with IRS Code. Plus, they do ALL the work for you. (If tax protesters only knew it could be so easy!)

After they've accomplished this for you—it takes four to eight weeks, from start to finish—they petition the IRS for a refund of ALL income taxes you've paid for the current year, plus the prior three years, including interest and penalties. (A U.S. Supreme court ruling allows them to go back only three years). While they won't guarantee the IRS sending your money back, no client has ever been refused a refund. That's not to say every client has received her refund, yet. Although, by law, the IRS must return the money with interest, they sometimes take their sweet time giving back tax money you've already paid them, as you might well imagine.

The process this company uses has been effective since the early seventies. The IRS has never challenged a client or taken her to court; which only makes sense. Why would the IRS complain when you follow all their rules and regulations? Once you've been on the conference call, you'll understand why you've never heard about this before, and why your attorney and CPA probably haven't either. You'll understand how this company can put their own name and reputation on the line for you, and you'll understand why the IRS unequivocally recognizes this company and what they do.

After your return to “non-taxpayer” status, the company will send you an employer information pack, with a new W-4 for your employer; that way, you can begin immediately taking home ALL your pay, with no more state and federal tax withholding. Imagine having a 20% to 50% pay raise in each paycheck—legally, lawfully, and without fear of repercussions. (Remember, you don't have to give up your social security card or stop using your SS number. Your non-taxpayer status is not connected to your SS#, except to identify you as tax exempt, in distinction to your former identification as a taxpayer or a non-filer/tax protester).

If what I'm saying sounds interesting, and you want to pursue it further, the company conference call takes place every Wednesday night, at 9 PM EASTERN Time. I suggest calling five to ten minutes early, because there's only room for 90 callers . The call generally lasts 60 to 90+ minutes. Joe Lansing, the company's Master Representative, does an excellent job of explaining how it all works. He'll stay on the line until every question is answered, regardless of the time it takes. He's completely "no hype," and he's one of the most gracious presenters I've ever heard. He doesn't “sell;” he teaches. You owe it to yourself to take a "listen to." One more thing: this is not MLM, or some “money making” opportunity (other than your own savings in income taxes, of course).

The number for the call is: 1-305-503-1874, pincode 940 (Enter the code when requested). Hitting "5" mutes your phone so others don't hear background noises or your heavy breathing. The number "4" unmutes your line for asking questions.

If you're interested in pursuing it further, or if or have questions, after the conference call, call me or write me. I've got more free information for you, with no obligation.
