

5 Ways to Respond to a Presentment or Draft

1) HONOR – ACCEPTANCE → Accept and carry out performance of the presentment example- the IRS says “You owe $20,000”, so you pay it

2) HONOR – CONDITIONAL ACCEPTANCE → Accept upon party meeting conditions

conditionally accept and re-draft example- with the CA4V conditional acceptance and the negative averment, which says “Sure, I’ll pay you, upon proof of claim!”

3) REFUSAL FOR CAUSE, WITHOUT DISHONOR

No Dishonor. Erroneous claim refused for cause. No liability evidenced.

[Pursuant to UCC 3-501 and Calif Comm Code 3501]

4) DISHONOR – REFUSAL → Argue the issues

example- who are you, what’s your authority, I don’t owe that much, or whatever issue

5) DISHONOR – REFUSAL → Default by remaining silent

Using conditional acceptance you can honor the presentment upon conditions that forces the other party to DISHONOR you. This turns the table on them. Then by using the Notary Protest on their dishonor you can perfect the dishonor. These helps you to achieve the agreement of the parties before coming into the court, so the substance is not at issue any longer, and the court is reduced to a ministerial duty - based on the evidence before it, which is that the only claim on the table - the claim of the notary who tried to get acceptance on the draft, and certifies that the dishonor of the opponent was deliberate!

Now you’re before the court with your notary and his evidence. The judge has an administrative, not judicial, issue. This means it is strictly procedural, where NO DISCRETION IS ALLOWED, where there is no immunity. If you go conditional accept your opponent offer, giving him the opportunity to produce his claim and he doesn’t do it, where is the controversy? Substance issue is over. Down and out! Now the judge gets to rule administratively, ministerially where there is no immunity.

UCC § 3-501. PRESENTMENT.

Conditional Acceptance (sometimes called Battle of Forms)

UCC § 2-207. Additional Terms in Acceptance or Confirmation.

(2) The additional terms are to be construed as proposals for addition to the contract. Between merchants such terms become part of the contract unless:

- (a) the offer expressly limits acceptance to the terms of the offer;
- (b) they materially alter it; or
- (c) notification of objection to them has already been given or is given within a reasonable time after notice of them is received.

(3) Conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of a contract is sufficient to establish a contract for sale although the writings of the parties do not otherwise establish a contract. GENERAL GOVERNMENT RESPONSE LETTER

The following letter can be adapted to almost any government inquiry. It is reprinted with permission from the AntiShyster, PO Box 540786, Dallas, TX 75354-0786, or call (214) 559-7957 - annual subscription $25. The importance of the letter is its structure and the strategy it reveals.

One Patriot Plaza, Rochester, Indiana 46975 August 17, 1990 Agent Iluv Toripuoff - Examiner Internal Revenue Service 666 Fraudhaven Drive Indianapolis, Indiana 46244 Dear Examiner Toripuoff: [RESPOND]I am in receipt of a form letter 904(DO), dated August 5,1990, that carries your stamped signature and which claims that you have been assigned to examine my "federal tax returns for the years stated above" and that you have set an appointment date of August 23, 1990 for me to come to your office along with a literal grocery list of personal documents. [ACCUSE]Mr. Toripuoff, you are in error and proceeding on a false assumption if you believe that I have some obligation to attend any meeting that you scheduled, without first confirming that I had any obligation to meet with you and confirm whether any date you set for an appointment was convenient for me. [DENY]I am hereby giving NOTICE UPON YOU of those errors and also declaring my objection to any such presumed claim by you or anyone else in your Service. I deny that I have any obligation or requirement to appear and produce for your examination, any personal papers or records. [STATE YOUR INTENT]I want to make it clear that it is my intention to obey all laws that legitimately impose a requirement or obligation upon me. However, I have no desire to volunteer where no obligation exists, especially when the waiver of my rights is involved. I am relying on what the Supreme Court held long ago: "An individual may be under no obligation to do a particular thing, and his failure to act creates no liability; but if he voluntarily attempts to act and do a particular thing, he comes under an implied obligation in respect to the manner in which he does it." Guardian T&D Co. v. Fisher (1906) 26 S.Ct. 186,188. [MAKE YOUR DETERMINATION]Therefore, I have determined that I am not one of your subjects for whom you can set a meeting without first requesting my permission. Neither am I one to whom you can demand that I produce personal papers for your review or that I have any obligation to submit those papers for an examination by you for any purpose. [MAKE YOUR DEMAND]If you agree with my determinations, I make timely demand that you notify me of the actions you have taken to correct your error. If you disagree with my determination I will expect you to document your position and authority with at least the following documents:

- 1) All documents on which you base your claim that I have any obligation to you or your Service or the United States and that I am the one who is required to produce books and records for your examination.
- 2) Copies of all documents that identify how I came within the purview of the statutes which you claim obligate me to produce personal documents for your examination.
- 3)

All documents of determination that indicate I am one who is liable or subject to any statute that you or your Service claim to have authority to enforce. 4) Copies of all documents that identify the facts on which those determinations were made. 5) Copies of all statutes on which those facts were applied to make any of the determinations that I am one who is liable or subject. [Item 6 helps establish future due process claims and defences]6) Copies of the Notices sent or served upon me prior to making those determinations. 7) Copies of your delegation of authority to inquire into my personal affairs or make any demand upon me, and the delegations of authority of those who made the above determinations that I am liable or subject to those determinations. 8) Copies of your document of appointment to the position which you now hold and copies of the documents that identify by name title, position, G.S.#, and office, each party who participated in any aspect of the above determinations. 9) The document that describes the procedural format for expungement of alleged determinations, improperly or unlawfully made within you Service. [STATE YOUR AUTHORITY]My authority for making this demand for verification of your authority has been well established as follows: "Whatever the form in which the Government functions, anyone entering into an arrangement with the Government takes the risk of having accurately ascertained that he who purports to act for the Government stays within the bounds of his authority... and this is so even though, as here, the agent himself may have been unaware of the limitations upon his authority." Federal Crop Insurance Corporation v. Merrill, 332 U.S. 380 at 384 (1947). [SET A TIME LIMIT]I will expect your response as to my demand for the correction of your error or the documents requested above within 30 days of your receipt of this letter. If you need additional time, please make your request in writing and it will be granted. [CHANGE THE PRESUMPTION]If I do not hear from you, within that time, your lack of response will establish the presumption that you or your Service do not have the documentation or the authority to support your claim of any requirement or obligation upon me. Sincerely, Samuel Adams Certified Mail #:_____ [NOTIFY THE AGENT'S BOSSES]Copies to: Agent Toripuoff; IRS District Director, IRS Commissioner, Secretary of the Treasury; U.S. Congressman; U.S. Senator.

House Joint Resolution (HJR)192 of June 5, 1933 – Not required to pay debt with substance.

What HJR-192 did was, remove the liability of an obligor (someone obligated to pay a debt) by making it against Public Policy to pay debts with debt. All that needs to be done now is discharge the debt with an appropriate credit “dollar for dollar,” or exchange the “bill for the bond” or the “past liability for the future liability,” thus passing over the present liability of the “Note.” The “Note” is the promise to deliver the offer. The one problem the industrial society has is there is no money to even credit the account with and because of that we (the creators of the industrial products) are the credit that the industrial society needs to adjust the ledger. They need our acknowledgement of having received the charge from them to be able to discharge their duty, just like electrical currency otherwise, they have an aging accounts receivable that they cannot close without our endorsement as to the benefits that were provided. As the operator, they need to charge us so we can ground/charge-back the account thus paying the tax. Debt must be “discharged dollar for dollar”.

Are you an “Accomodation Party”

“Accommodation Party” is defined as:

“One who signs commercial paper in any capacity for the purpose of lending his name (i. e. credit) to another party to instrument.” UCC § 3-415 Such party is a surety.

But what if you did not “sign” an instrument, say for example, the Certificate of Live Birth Report filed with DHHS or Dept. of Commerce, or Dept. of the Treasury (Register)? Are you still a surety, or guarantor? The answer is yes.

“Signed” includes any symbol executed or adopted by a party with present intention to authenticate a writing.” UCC § 1-201(39). The UCC commentary of this section has this to say:

“Signed” (after the fact the name, or credit, was lent): The inclusion of authentication in the definition of “signed” is to make clear that as the term is used in this Act (UCC) a complete signature is not necessary. Authentication may be printed, stamped or written; it may be by initials or by thumb print. It may be on any part of the document and in appropriate cases may be found in a bill heading or letterhead.

What is an appropriate case? For purpose of this discussion, an appropriate case may be a legal document called a court caption on a legal pleading, or a Certificate of Live Birth Report filed and registered by a physician, and with your Name your Credit, and your Title passing to the Holder-in-due-course; always.

Title to goods (Goods = the unborn young of animals) passes to the Holder-in-due course involved in the transaction. The Thing (res - pronounced RACE) or Title to the goods, in the form of a Warehouse Receipt, or Field Warehouse Receipt, once registered, becomes a perfected security, leaving the “pledgee” in the position of a subordinate debtor, for the simple reason there are creditors, and there are debtors, and one can not assume both capacities on the simple reasoning and sound logic that one can not be obligated to ones self, i.e., one can not contract with one’s self to form a binding contract. This precedence can be found articulated in the landmark case “Trustee of the Dartmouth College v. Woodward.

“Such a pledge is obligatory on the pledgee and once transacted, leaves the pledgee without title, rights, nor remedy except to complain of the trustee’s performance

This leaves the pledgee with no credit, name, or title in effect “stramineus homo, a dummy, or strawman” in the capacity of a subordinate debtor (to the Holder - in - due - course). Thus, if one has not re-secured the pledge (bailment, in the form of a debenture), or security interest, one’s silence or inaction is all that is necessary for the holder-in-due-course to give legal effect to the preceding act, and you become the accommodation party, with no value, rights, or remedy. Congratulation concerning your transformation into the “goyim.”

Without the name, title, or credit, you have little or no rights, and no remedy. What’s worse, all your precious labor and services to fulfill the American Dream, is considered nothing more than a gift to the Holder-in-due-course (see: 31 USC § 321(d)(2)).

And, when the IRS gets involved, do you really believe you’re being targeted for a tax liability, from some realized duty of citizenship? Poppycock! You are being fined for not honoring the pledge made in your behalf (see: 18 USC § 3613(c)), i.e., “... as if the liability of the person fined were a liability for tax assessed...” There you have it, plain and simple.

The registration of the pledge, by accommodation, perfects a security interest in the goods pledged, in favor of the holder-in-due-course, and this pledge (i.e., pignus or hypotheca; is a species of bailment) runs in perpetuity unto the tenth generation of unborn children who have yet to become a gleam in daddy’s eye who unfortunately owe the holder-in-due-course in excess of eighty three (83) thousand dollars, money’s worth, or value. The Posterity is tricked into spending the assets of their future progeny, all the meanwhile convinced, this is all well and good; this is America.

And if you do not comprehend a moral problem with this scenario, then what makes you think I should? Right. This is nothing more than perpetual debt bondage, in the commercial world.

Government operates with commercial paper, nothing more. Municipal corporations issue bonds on the collateral held in trust (jure gistonis) which are brought by someone, thus leaving the (priority-tax exempt) collateral (pledge, accommodation party) in a seriously subordinate capacity; the issuer of the bond, the debtor, liable to redeem the bonds at a given date; and the purchaser in the position of creditor with primary and paramount title to the collateral, i.e., YOUR STRAWMAN for commercial purpose.

Ever wonder why “Notice of Federal Tax Lien (Levy)” is filed with the County Recorders? The answer is simple. The filing against “personal property” where the subordinate debtor resides, with no title, name, credit, or value, and having taken the value (benefit) from the holder-in-due-course and transferred this value to your own use, leaves you either with a duty to account therefore (filing the 1040), or a liability (to pay, or discharge) both civilly and criminally depending on the holder-in-due-course attitude for the moment, or whatever profile you fit into.

This is always an admiralty "in rem" type of action, or transaction because it always involves a duty or debt to the title holder with all of your value... What was that, you say.... this is FRAUD? B.S.

What the fraud could be with a little effort on your part is that government is now privatizing the security interest in the collateral, making them, or it, the absolute Lord Proprietor.

This type of privatizing (jure imperii) is what the CAFR'S call unjust enrichment, because the pledgee is left out of the loop either as debtor, or creditor, and always with the Liability, i.e., consumer obligation, i.e., by YOUR (PARTY) ACCOMMODATION...
